BET ON THE FUTURE: WHY THE UFL IS THE WISEST PLAY FOR SPORTS BETTORS

If you think that betting on football ended with the Super Bowl, that's not the case. The UFL returns on March 27th for its third season. This is not some minor league that is streamed where nobody can find it. It's on ESPN, ABC and Fox Sports.

The product of a merger between the XFL and USFL, the UFL offers 40 games with 4 games per week, from March 27 to June 14. In the first two seasons, we've won 72% of our top games and last season, WON four straight weeks and ended the season winning 6 of 8.

we know the UFL is going to be a huge success as we're projecting over 80 units this season. Don't miss out, bet with the best and turn this ufl season into your most profitable season yet!

BETTOR'S GUIDE TO THE UFL

Unlike the NFL, THE UFL gets less attention so sharp bettors can capitalize on these overlooked lines. At ATS, we study depth charts, coaching tendencies, and injury reports, to may find edges that are harder to get in the NFL because the oddsmakers have very little of that information.

The UFL offers a faster-paced game with creative rules including:

- No punting inside the 50-yard line
- Three options for extra points (1-3pts)
- A player is required to have just one foot inbounds instead of two on a catch
- A 4-point field goal for field goals of 60 yards or longer
- The tush push has been banned.

With oddsmakers still adjusting to the ufl's unique rules and gameplay, ats is ready to exploit the value and keep giving out consistent winners. This gives our team a perfect Opportunity to capitalize on these soft lines and deliver even more success to clients.
