Seattle Seahawks at Denver Broncos

8:15 PM ET | Prime Video | Seattle -2½ to -3 | Total 42 to 42½

Records / market: Both teams are 3-2 SU. Seattle 1-2-2 ATS and Denver 3-2 ATS;

Odds: Seattle -2½ (-118), Denver +2½ (-102), total 42½

Last game: Seattle lost 32-29 to San Francisco, with four turnovers undermining its offensive production. Denver won 23-17 at the Chargers; defensive takeaways helped fuel the comeback after a quiet offensive start.

QB matchup: Sam Darnold: latest 18/29, 195 passing yards, 1 TD/2 INT, 64.6 rating against San Francisco. Bo Nix: latest 16/27, 123 yards, 1 TD/0 INT, 82.8 rating at the Chargers. These are Week 5 game lines, not season totals.

Offense / defense: Seattle averages 106.0 rushing and 222.0 passing yards per game; Denver allows 145.2 rushing and 202.2 passing. Seattle’s run-game efficiency and ball security are key against Denver’s pressure. Nix faces a Seattle defense ranked second in EPA per play.

Weather: Denver forecast: near 48°F at 6:15 PM local kickoff, cooling into the low-to-mid 40s, with rain possible later in the evening.

Trends: Seattle is 13-5-1 ATS on the road under Mike Macdonald, 2-6 ATS last 8 Thursday games. Denver is 1-6 ATS last 7 Thursday games and 8-2 Under last 10 in Week 6.

2025: Nov 09, 2025: HOU won 36-29; ATS winner HOU -1.5; Over 37.5. Sep 21, 2025: JAC won 17-10; ATS winner JAC -1.5; Under 43.5.

Last game: Houston earned its first victory, 26-3 at Tennessee on Oct. 11, covered -6.5 and went Under 37.5. C.J. Stroud completed 26-of-34 passes for 261 yards, one touchdown and no interception. Jacksonville beat Philadelphia 19-17 in London on Oct. 11, but did not cover -8.5; the game stayed Under 41.5. Trevor Lawrence threw for 331 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. A 53-yard Abdullah kick return set up Cam Little's winning 57-yard field goal with eight seconds left. The Jaguars now change London venues for their second consecutive overseas game.

QB matchup: C.J. Stroud: 64.3%, 1,402 passing yards, 6 TD/0 INT, 98.1 passer rating. Trevor Lawrence: 67.1%, 1,174 passing yards, 10 TD/3 INT, 106.8 passer rating. Stroud has yet to throw an interception this season. Lawrence has the better touchdown rate and passer rating.

Trends: HOU: Under in four of its last five appearances as an underdog. They are 1-5 ATS last 6 overall. JAC: Four consecutive Unders and 8-2 Under last 10 after an ATS loss. Jags were 11-3 ATS last 14 overall and 8-2 Under last 10 after an ATS loss.

Carolina at Philadelphia

1:00 PM ET | CBS | PHI -1.5 | Total 40.0

Weather: Lincoln Financial Field, Philadelphia. About 56 F; WSW wind 8 mph; clear; 1% rain probability.

Records: CAR 2-2 SU, 2-2 ATS, 2-2 O/U | PHI 2-3 SU, 1-4 ATS, 3-2 O/U

Last game: Carolina last played on Oct. 4, beating Detroit 32-26 before its bye. The Panthers covered +4.5 and went Over 52.5. Bryce Young completed 29-of-41 passes for 329 yards, two touchdowns and no interceptions. That passing performance fits Carolina's strong season yardage production; the concern remains a defense permitting too many productive possessions. Philadelphia lost 19-17 to Jacksonville in London on Oct. 11, but covered +8.5; the game stayed Under 41.5. Jalen Hurts was 21-of-40 for 220 yards, one touchdown and no interception. The Eagles were seconds from a win before Jacksonville's late kick return and 57-yard field goal. They return across the Atlantic without a bye.

QB matchup: Bryce Young: 62.3%, 1,268 passing yards, 9 TD/2 INT, 100.0 passer rating. Jalen Hurts: 57.8%, 933 passing yards, 8 TD/3 INT, 84.7 passer rating.

Trends: CAR: 2-2 SU and ATS this season; extra preparation after the bye. PHI: 1-4 ATS this season; five straight Unders after a SU loss.

New Orleans at New York Giants

Weather: MetLife Stadium, East Rutherford. About 55 F; WSW wind 11 mph; clear; 1% rain probability.

Records: NO 1-4 SU, 2-3 ATS, 3-2 O/U | NYG 3-1-1 SU, 4-1 ATS, 3-2 O/U

2025: Oct 05, 2025: NO won 26-14; ATS winner NO -1.5; Under 41.5.

Last game: New Orleans lost to Minnesota 23-13 on Oct. 11, failed to cover +2.5 and stayed Under 41.5. Tyler Shough completed 16-of-25 throws for 96 yards, no touchdowns and two interceptions. The Saints produced too little through the air to make their early-season scoring average useful as a description of the current offense. The Giants tied Washington 27-27 on Oct. 11, covered +3.5 and went Over 41.5. Jameis Winston threw for 326 yards and three touchdowns without an interception, and added 27 rushing yards. New York erased a 14-point fourth-quarter deficit. The comeback kept its record at 3-1-1 rather than producing a fourth win.

QB matchup: Tyler Shough: 66.8%, 1,299 passing yards, 9 TD/5 INT, 88.6 passer rating. Jameis Winston: 57.6%, 805 passing yards, 6 TD/3 INT, 81.2 passer rating. Winston has the momentum from the last game, but his season completion rate is below Shough's. The relevant distinction is New York's stronger defense and New Orleans' turnover exposure, not one afternoon alone.

Trends: NO: Seven straight road ATS wins, 0-5 ATS last 5 games in October, 6-1 Under last 7 after an ATS loss and 6-1 Under last 7 in October. NYG: 4-1 ATS this season, 5-0 Over last 5 in October.

The defense contained a favored Dallas offense, giving the rookie a manageable game. Tampa has ten days between games versus Pittsburgh's seven.

QB matchup: Aaron Rodgers: 59.8%, 1,234 passing yards, 10 TD/4 INT, 88.9 passer rating. Jalon Daniels: 69.1%, 337 passing yards, 2 TD/3 INT, 74.6 passer rating. Jalon Daniels is the recent Tampa starter, distinct from Washington's Jayden Daniels. Baker Mayfield's thumb injury makes his return uncertain.

Last game: Chicago lost at Green Bay 31-7 on Oct. 11, failed to cover -1.5 and stayed Under 47.5. Tyson Bagent threw two interceptions and Case Keenum one; the offense committed five total turnovers and managed 246 yards. The defense also surrendered several long completions. Missing Caleb Williams explains some instability, but execution problems extended beyond quarterback. Atlanta lost 30-23 in overtime to Baltimore on Oct. 11, failed to cover -3.5 and went Over 43.5. Michael Penix Jr. completed 19-of-32 passes for 240 yards and a touchdown before leaving with a rib injury.

QB matchup: Caleb Williams: 65.5%, 407 passing yards, 2 TD/1 INT, 92.0 passer rating. Michael Penix Jr: 67.5%, 719 passing yards, 3 TD/1 INT, 104.8 passer rating. Both listed starters are conditional. Williams has missed three games with a hamstring injury, and Chicago has not settled the backup order if he remains unavailable. Penix could give way to Tagovailoa. Keenum: 355 yards, 2 TD/1 INT; Bagent: 409, 0/3. Tua has only three attempts this season.

4:05 PM ET | FOX | LAR -12.5 | Total 52.5

Weather: SoFi Stadium, Inglewood. SoFi is covered but has open sides.

Records: ARI 1-4 SU, 2-3 ATS, 3-2 O/U | LAR 2-3 SU, 2-3 ATS, 3-2 O/U

2025: Dec 07, 2025: LAR won 45-17; ATS winner LAR -9.5; Over 48.5. Jan. 4, 2026 (Week 18 of the 2025 season): Rams 37-20; LAR -14.5 covered; total 49.5 went Over.

Last game: Arizona lost 45-21 at home to Detroit on Oct. 11, failed to cover +4.5 and went Over 55.5. Jacoby Brissett was 29-of-47 for 292 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. The passing production could not offset a defense conceding 45 points. Arizona has allowed at least 30 in each of its last three games. The Rams lost in overtime to Buffalo on Monday 37-34, Oct. 12, failed to cover -3.5 and went Over 55.5. Matthew Stafford completed 40-of-54 throws for 383 yards, three touchdowns and no interception. Los Angeles tied it late, but an overtime field-goal attempt was blocked before Buffalo's winning kick.

QB matchup: Jacoby Brissett: 66.3%, 1,110 passing yards, 9 TD/5 INT, 85.2 passer rating. Matthew Stafford: 64.4%, 1,572 passing yards, 9 TD/6 INT, 88.3 passer rating. Brissett is Arizona's current starter. Stafford leads this pairing in passing production but has six interceptions for the season. The Rams need last week's clean passing performance to continue while reducing the rushing damage allowed.

Trends: ARI: Six straight Overs in October. LAR: 6-0-1 Under last 7 in Week 6 and 4-0 ATS last 4 in Week 6.

Buffalo at Las Vegas

Weather: Allegiant Stadium, Las Vegas. Enclosed stadium.

Records: BUF 4-1 SU, 4-1 ATS, 4-1 O/U | LV 3-2 SU, 4-1 ATS, 3-2 O/U

Last game: Buffalo won 37-34 in overtime at the Rams on Monday, Oct. 12, covered +3.5 and went Over 55.5. Josh Allen threw for 202 yards and a touchdown, and rushed for 121 yards and another score. James Cook added 111 rushing yards and two TDs. After Cook's overtime fumble, Greg Rousseau blocked a field goal and Tyler Bass won it from 45 yards. Las Vegas lost 45-17 at New England on Oct. 11, failed to cover +3.5 and went Over 45.5. Kirk Cousins was 19-of-28 for 243 yards and a touchdown without an interception. Fernando Mendoza completed six of eight relief throws for 48 yards; that appearance does not establish a starter change. The defense allowed Maye five total touchdowns.

QB matchup: Josh Allen: 65.9%, 1,249 passing yards, 7 TD/4 INT, 99.6 passer rating. Kirk Cousins: 65.1%, 1,269 passing yards, 12 TD/4 INT, 100.7 passer rating.

Trends: BUF: 4-1 ATS and 4-1 Over this season. They are 7-0-1 Over last 8 vs. Raiders. LV: 4-1 ATS this season and 5-0 Over last 5 vs. a team with a winning road record.

Los Angeles Chargers at Kansas City

4:25 PM ET | CBS | KC -8.5 | Total 42.5

Weather: GEHA Field at Arrowhead Stadium, Kansas City. About 65 F; southerly wind 13 mph; partly cloudy; 4% rain probability.

Records: LAC 0-5 SU, 0-5 ATS, 1-4 O/U | KC 4-0 SU, 2-2 ATS, 2-2 O/U

2025: Dec 14, 2025: LAC won 16-13; ATS winner LAC 5.5; Under 41.5. Sep 05, 2025: LAC won 27-21; ATS winner LAC 3.0; Over 47.5.

Last game: The Chargers lost 23-17 at home to Denver 23-17 last week and failed to cover +3.5 and stayed Under 42.5. Justin Herbert was 14-of-24 for 121 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Three team giveaways and limited passing production prevented a first victory. Los Angeles is now winless both SU and ATS through five games. Kansas City last played Oct. 4, winning 30-27 at Las Vegas before its bye. The Chiefs did not cover -3.5, and the game went Over 47.5. Patrick Mahomes finished 15-of-30 for 225 yards and two touchdowns without an interception.

QB matchup: Justin Herbert: 59.4%, 937 passing yards, 5 TD/7 INT, 70.2 passer rating. Patrick Mahomes: 64.1%, 1,037 passing yards, 9 TD/2 INT, 106.2 passer rating. Herbert is active in the current projection, not an injured quarterback being replaced. His seven interceptions and 70.2 rating contrast sharply with Mahomes' two picks and 106.2 rating. Offensive-line availability remains a major reason for the disparity.

Trends: LAC: 6-1-1 ATS in the last eight visits to Kansas City, but 0-5 ATS this season. Seven of the last eight overall went Under. KC: Five straight Week 6 Unders; five straight Unders in series games played in Kansas City. They are 7-0 Under last 7 vs. AFC.

2025: Sep 28, 2025: Tie 40-40; ATS winner DAL 6.5; Over 46.5.

Last game: Dallas lost to Tampa Bay 24-16 on Thursday, Oct. 8, failed to cover -9.5 and stayed Under 49.5. Dak Prescott was 24-of-42 for 316 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. Green Bay beat Chicago 31-7 on Oct. 11, covered +1.5 and stayed Under 47.5. Jordan Love completed 25-of-31 passes for 367 yards and two touchdowns without an interception. The defense produced five takeaways and MarShawn Lloyd ran for two scores.

QB matchup: Dak Prescott: 67.2%, 1,381 passing yards, 9 TD/3 INT, 97.2 passer rating. Jordan Love: 60.5%, 1,408 passing yards, 10 TD/3 INT, 95.5 passer rating.

Washington at San Francisco

Monday, Oct 19, 2026 | 8:15 PM ET | ESPN / ABC | SF -7.5 | Total 50.5

Weather: Levi's Stadium, Santa Clara. About 64 F; WNW wind 13 mph; partly cloudy; 14% rain probability.

Records: WAS 1-3-1 SU, 2-3 ATS, 4-1 O/U | SF 5-0 SU, 4-1 ATS, 3-2 O/U

Last game: Washington tied the Giants 27-27 on Oct. 11, failed to cover -3.5 and went Over 41.5. Jayden Daniels returned to the lineup and completed 17-of-25 throws for 199 yards without a touchdown or interception. Washington let a 14-point fourth-quarter lead disappear, turning a strong opportunity into a tie and leaving its record at 1-3-1. San Francisco won 32-29 at Seattle on Oct. 11, covered +3.5 and went Over 46.5. Brock Purdy was 19-of-29 for 189 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. Four Seattle turnovers helped the 49ers stay unbeaten. They return home 5-0, but cannot count on another giveaway-assisted scoring and field-position advantage.

QB matchup: J. Daniels: 60.5%, 459 passing yards, 3 TD/0 INT, 90.8 passer rating. Brock Purdy: 69.0%, 1,196 passing yards, 13 TD/2 INT, 119.3 passer rating. Purdy's 13 passing touchdowns, 69.0% completion rate and 119.3 rating give San Francisco the clearer passing edge. Daniels adds the mobility to extend drives, with 203 rushing yards and two rushing TDs in three appearances.

Trends: WAS: Seven straight Overs against winning opponents, and seven Overs in its last eight NFC games. San Francisco's 5-0 record qualifies for the first situation. SF: 8-1-1 ATS in the last ten as a favorite; seven of the last eight after an ATS win went Over.

EXTENDED NFL KEY INJURIES

All 28 teams | Positions, conditions, availability and matchup impact | Late Tuesday, October 13 snapshot

Week 6 decisions are pending unless an absence is confirmed. “Week 5 out” refers to the previous game. Return windows require activation. Estimated practice is not game clearance.

Seattle Seahawks

Jaxon Smith-Njigba (WR): Ankle. Tuesday estimate: limited; final status pending.

Leonard Williams (DT): Ankle. Tuesday estimate: limited; final status pending.

Drake Thomas (LB): Ankle. Tuesday estimate: DNP; starting LB availability uncertain.

Chazz Surratt (LB): Calf. Tuesday estimate: DNP; missed the last two games.

Zach Charbonnet (RB): Knee / ACL recovery. PUP return window; coach says Thursday return unlikely.

Jadarian Price (RB): Chest. IR; backfield depth reduced.

Drew Lock (QB): Right forearm. Backup QB; Tuesday estimate: limited.

George Holani (RB): Ribs / knee. Tuesday estimate: full; improved backfield depth.

Beau Stephens (G): Shoulder. Tuesday estimate: full, upgraded from limited.

Irv Charles (WR / ST): Knee recovery. Activated from IR Tuesday; estimated full participation.

Matchup impact: Smith-Njigba affects the primary passing option; Williams affects interior pressure and run defense. The two linebackers influence tackling and underneath coverage. Charbonnet is an activation question, while Lock matters chiefly if Darnold leaves the game. Charles adds coverage-unit help.

Denver Broncos

Patrick Surtain II (CB): Ankle. Tuesday estimate: DNP; missed Week 5.

Talanoa Hufanga (S): Ankle. Tuesday estimate: DNP after leaving Week 5.

Riley Moss (CB): Ribs. Tuesday estimate: limited; missed Week 5.

Sai'vion Jones (DE): Shoulder. Tuesday estimate: full, upgraded from limited.

Brandon Jones (S): Foot. Tuesday estimate: full.

Ben Powers (G): Biceps. Tuesday estimate: full.

Pat Bryant (WR): Ankle. IR; not an immediate Thursday return.

Matchup impact: Surtain, Hufanga and Moss are the consequential cluster; losing multiple starting defensive backs changes how Denver can cover Seattle and support the run. Full participation for Powers and Brandon Jones is encouraging, but estimated practice is not a final game designation.

Houston Texans

David Montgomery (RB): Groin. Coach describes him as week-to-week; Week 6 unresolved.

Jalen Pitre (S): Left shoulder. Coach describes him as week-to-week; Week 6 unresolved.

Tank Dell (WR): Knee recovery. IR return window open; activation not confirmed.

Braden Smith (OT): Foot. Return candidate; Week 5 report still listed him out.

Mario Edwards Jr. (DT): Knee / ACL. Long-term absence; listed unavailable.

Henry To'oTo'o (LB): Shoulder. Listed unavailable; reduces defensive depth.

Matchup impact: Montgomery affects early-down rushing and protection; more backfield work falls to the remaining backs if he cannot play. Pitre affects safety flexibility and coverage communication. Dell and Smith require actual activation or clearance before improving the projected offense.

Jacksonville Jaguars

Anton Harrison (LT): Right knee. Placed on IR Tuesday; unavailable for Week 6.

Ross Matiscik (LS): Shoulder. Unlikely for Week 6; replacement long snapper signed.

Montaric Brown (CB): Hamstring. Re-injured during Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Eric Murray (S): Concussion. Missed Week 5; protocol clearance needed.

Jaylon Jones (CB): Hamstring. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Caleb Ransaw (S): Knee. Listed unavailable; long-term secondary depth loss.

Josh Hines-Allen (EDGE): Groin. Limited on Week 5 report; no final Week 6 designation.

Matchup impact: Harrison is a confirmed blind-side loss, with Walker Little expected to take over. That can require more help in protection against Houston. Brown, Murray and Jones could compound coverage-depth problems; Hines-Allen is a participation watch, rather than a confirmed absence.

New Orleans Saints

Travis Etienne Jr. (RB): Hamstring. IR absence; unavailable unless activated.

Jordyn Tyson (WR): Hamstring. IR absence; unavailable unless activated.

Kelvin Banks Jr. (LT): Ankle. Long-term absence following surgery.

Kaden Elliss (LB): Calf. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Anfernee Jennings (EDGE): Knee. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Jeremiah Wright (G): Concussion. Week 5 out designation; clearance needed.

Matchup impact: The offensive losses affect rushing production, receiving options and protection for Shough. Wright adds an interior-line issue if he remains unavailable. Elliss and Jennings affect second-level run defense and edge pressure against a Giants offense that can test both.

New York Giants

Jaxon Dart (QB): Knee / MCL. IR; Winston remains the current starter.

Brian Burns (EDGE): Knee / ACL. IR; major pass-rush absence.

Jermaine Eluemunor (OT): Calf. Coach: day-to-day; chance to play Sunday.

Colton Hood (CB): Concussion. Coach: day-to-day; protocol clearance still matters.

Tyler Nubin (S): Neck. Coach: day-to-day; Week 6 unresolved.

Jason Pinnock (S): Concussion. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Chauncey Golston (DL): Neck. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Matchup impact: Dart changes the quarterback plan, and Burns changes the ability to pressure without blitzing. Eluemunor affects tackle protection for Winston. A combination of Hood, Nubin and Pinnock absences would weaken coverage communication and reduce options against New Orleans receivers.

Tennessee Titans

Amani Hooker (S): Concussion. Week 5 out designation; clearance needed.

Kevin Winston Jr. (S): Quadriceps. New Week 5 concern; Week 6 pending.

Cor'Dale Flott (CB): Chest. Left Week 5; Week 6 pending.

David Martin-Robinson (TE): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Joshua Williams (CB): Pectoral. Return / clearance watch; not confirmed active.

Matchup impact: The key issue is secondary depth: Hooker, Winston and Flott affect both coverage and run support. Martin-Robinson affects tight-end blocking and short passing. Tennessee needs its defensive structure intact because a struggling offense leaves little margin for easy Colts scores.

Indianapolis Colts

Darius Slayton (WR): Knee. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Ashton Dulin (WR): Hamstring. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Alec Pierce (WR): Heel. IR; unavailable unless activated.

Jaylon Carlies (LB): Ribs. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Arden Key (EDGE): Hamstring. IR absence; pass-rush depth affected.

Will Mallory (TE): Thumb. Return candidate; Week 5 report still listed him out.

Matchup impact: The receiver cluster limits route depth and explosiveness around Daniel Jones. Carlies affects second-level coverage and tackling, while Key reduces pressure options. Indianapolis should not assume the return of a player practicing under an activation window until the roster move occurs.

Carolina Panthers

Jalen Coker (WR): Quadriceps. Return possible after bye; Week 6 not confirmed.

Monroe Freeling (OT): Knee. Return watch after bye; Week 6 pending.

Damien Lewis (G): Elbow. Return watch after bye; Week 6 pending.

Jaelan Phillips (EDGE): Hamstring. Return watch after bye; Week 6 pending.

Taylor Moton (RT): Medical / NFL. Return-to-practice process; not confirmed for Sunday.

Ikem Ekwonu (LT): Knee. PUP; no confirmed activation.

Jaycee Horn (CB): Quadriceps. IR; unavailable unless activated.

Xavier Legette (WR): Knee. IR; unavailable unless activated.

Matchup impact: Potential returns at receiver and on the offensive line could improve Young's options and protection. Carolina still has major tackle and cornerback availability issues. Phillips affects edge pressure; his return could help contain Hurts without creating coverage openings through extra blitzing.

Philadelphia Eagles

Saquon Barkley (RB): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; coach hopeful, not yet cleared.

DeVonta Smith (WR): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Will Shipley (RB): Foot / plantar fascia. Reported partial tear; multiweek absence possible.

Tank Bigsby (RB): Core / abdomen. IR; backfield depth remains reduced.

Hollywood Brown (WR): Ankle. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Jonathan Greenard (EDGE): Ankle. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Jalyx Hunt (EDGE): Ankle / knee. Tuesday coach update strongly doubts Sunday availability.

Landon Dickerson (G): Knee. IR; interior protection / blocking affected.

Philadelphia Eagles (continued)

Matchup impact: Barkley, Shipley and Bigsby form the most important backfield cluster; Smith and Brown affect downfield options. If both Greenard and Hunt remain unavailable, Philadelphia loses edge-pressure flexibility. The offense and defense each need separate availability checks before evaluating the spread or total.

Chicago Bears

Caleb Williams (QB): Hamstring. Missed three games; coach says return is close, unconfirmed.

Kyle Monangai (RB): Toe / thumb. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

T.J. Edwards (LB): Hamstring. New Week 5 injury; Week 6 pending.

Tyrique Stevenson (CB): Hamstring. New Week 5 injury; Week 6 pending.

Dayo Odeyingbo (EDGE): Quadriceps. Left Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Kyler Gordon (CB): Calf. PUP return process; activation not confirmed.

Braxton Jones (OT): Knee. Long-term IR absence.

Matchup impact: Williams affects both passing execution and the potential scoring ceiling. Monangai affects the rushing rotation and short-yardage work. Edwards, Stevenson and Odeyingbo affect three different defensive levels; Gordon's return would help coverage but must be confirmed rather than assumed.

Atlanta Falcons

Michael Penix Jr. (QB): Ribs. Cannot assume a start; practice / pain tolerance are key.

Za'Darius Smith (EDGE): Concussion / neck. Missed Week 5; clearance / Week 6 status pending.

C.J. Henderson (CB): Groin. Injured in Week 5; Week 6 pending.

A.J. Terrell Jr. (CB): Groin. IR; unavailable unless activated.

Yasir Abdullah (LB): Hamstring. IR absence; linebacker depth reduced.

Jake Matthews (OT): Groin. Week 5 questionable listing; monitor new report.

Matchup impact: Penix's status determines whether the offense keeps its current starter or turns to Tua Tagovailoa. Terrell and Henderson can create a coverage cluster against Chicago. Smith affects pass-rush depth; Matthews is a protection watch, with no confirmed new absence.

New York Jets

Breece Hall (RB): Quadriceps. Missed two games; Week 6 pending.

Adonai Mitchell (WR): Finger. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Kenyon Sadiq (TE): Concussion. Left Week 5; protocol clearance needed.

Joseph Ossai (EDGE): Ankle. Left Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Dylan Parham (G): Knee. Week 5 out designation; Week 6 pending.

Omar Cooper Jr. (WR): Ankle. Return-window candidate; not confirmed active.

Matchup impact: Hall, Mitchell and Sadiq affect three parts of Geno Smith's support group. Braelon Allen can carry more rushing work, but multiple absences restrict play design and receiving options. Parham affects interior protection, while Ossai affects pressure against Maye.

New England Patriots

TreVeyon Henderson (RB): High ankle sprain. Expected to miss multiple weeks; not assumed available.

Will Campbell (LT): Knee. Injured in Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Christian Gonzalez (CB): Shoulder. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

EXTENDED NFL KEY INJURIES

All 28 teams | Positions, conditions, availability and matchup impact | Late Tuesday, October 13 snapshot

New England Patriots (continued)

Carlton Davis III (CB): Neck. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Dre'Mont Jones (EDGE): Shoulder. Week 5 concern; new participation report needed.

A.J. Brown (WR): Ankle. IR return candidate; activation not confirmed.

Mack Hollins (WR): Calf. IR absence; receiving depth reduced.

Matchup impact: Henderson affects the rushing rotation, and Campbell affects Maye's blind-side protection. Gonzalez and Davis are the highest-impact defensive pairing: losing both changes coverage assignments. Brown's eligibility to return is useful news, but it is not the same as being ready for a full game.

Pittsburgh Steelers

Roman Wilson (WR): Hand / finger. Coach ruled him out for Week 6.

Ben Skowronek (WR): Calf / ankle. Coach ruled him out for Week 6.

Michael Pittman Jr. (WR): Foot. IR; unavailable unless activated.

Rico Dowdle (RB): Toe. Return watch; Week 6 pending.

Jamel Dean (CB): Ankle. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

DeShon Elliott (S): Knee. Return candidate; not confirmed activated.

Derrick Harmon (DT): Foot. Listed unavailable; defensive-line depth loss.

Matchup impact: Three receiver absences reduce Rodgers' options and increase the burden on the healthy wideouts and tight ends. Dowdle affects the backfield rotation. Dean and Elliott affect coverage against Tampa's passing game, while Harmon affects the interior front versus the run.

Tampa Bay Buccaneers

Baker Mayfield (QB): Right thumb. Missed Week 5; Week 6 return not confirmed.

Antoine Winfield Jr. (S): Rib fracture. Missed Week 5; prior estimate was multiple weeks.

SirVocea Dennis (LB): Ankle / foot. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Benjamin Morrison (CB): Quadriceps. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Jalen McMillan (WR): Knee / PCL. IR; unavailable unless activated.

David Sills V (WR): Hamstring. Return-to-practice window; not confirmed active.

Matchup impact: Mayfield determines whether Tampa returns to its veteran starter or continues with Jalon Daniels. Winfield, Dennis and Morrison affect coverage at safety, linebacker and corner. Missing several of them would help Rodgers find matchups even with Pittsburgh's own receiver injuries.

Baltimore Ravens

Lamar Jackson (QB): Ankle. Improving; Sunday start and mobility still unconfirmed.

Cam Jurgens (C): Concussion. Late stages of protocol; clearance still needed.

Trey Hendrickson (EDGE): Finger. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Andrew Vorhees (G): Foot. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Broderick Washington Jr. (DT): Ankle. New Week 5 injury; Week 6 pending.

Ja'Kobi Lane (WR): Wrist. IR / possible return window; not confirmed active.

Durham Smythe (TE): Achilles. Long-term absence.

Matchup impact: Jackson is the largest side-and-total variable, with Huntley the alternative. Jurgens and Vorhees affect interior protection and rushing execution. Hendrickson changes edge pressure, while Washington affects run defense. Those line issues matter even if Jackson is cleared.

Cleveland Browns

Quinshon Judkins (RB): Right ankle. Coach: day-to-day after Week 5.

KC Concepcion (WR): Concussion. Protocol clearance needed.

Carson Schwesinger (LB): Right ankle. Day-to-day after Week 5.

Tytus Howard (RT): Knee. Left Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Mason Graham (DT): Knee. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Mike Hall Jr. (DT): Ankle. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Teven Jenkins (G): Back. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Dylan Sampson (RB): Knee. Longer-term absence / possible return-window watch.

Matchup impact: Howard and Jenkins are especially important after Cleveland allowed eight sacks. Judkins and Sampson affect rushing depth; Concepcion affects passing options. Graham, Hall and Schwesinger could leave a depleted middle against Baltimore's run-heavy offense.

Arizona Cardinals

Paris Johnson Jr. (LT): Biceps. IR; major protection absence.

James Conner (RB): Foot. Return-to-practice window; not confirmed activated.

Isaiah Adams (G): Ankle. IR; interior-line depth reduced.

Andrew Wingard (S): Knee. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Wydettt Williams Jr. (S): Concussion. New Week 5 injury; clearance needed.

Hunter Long (TE): Knee. Listed unavailable; tight-end depth reduced.

Tip Reiman (TE): Ankle. PUP return / activation watch.

Matchup impact: Johnson and Adams affect Brissett's protection, while the tight-end losses can limit blocking help. Conner requires activation before changing the running-game projection. Wingard and Williams affect deep coverage and support against an explosive Rams passing attack.

Los Angeles Rams

Myles Garrett (EDGE): Knee. IR; no confirmed Week 6 return.

Terrance Ferguson (TE): Ankle. IR; unavailable unless activated.

Ronnie Rivers (RB): Calf. Listed unavailable; backfield depth reduced.

Jaylen Watson (CB): Shoulder. New contact / injury concern Monday; Week 6 pending.

Quentin Lake (S): Hip. Week 5 questionable listing; monitor new report.

Matchup impact: Garrett is the largest pass-rush loss, and Ferguson affects tight-end versatility. Watson merits a fresh check after Monday's game; Lake is a recent-condition watch, not a confirmed absence. Additional defensive-back losses could help Arizona stay competitive despite the large spread.

Buffalo Bills

DJ Moore (WR): Shoulder. Missed Monday game; Week 6 pending.

Joshua Palmer (WR): Shoulder. Missed Monday game; Week 6 pending.

Spencer Brown (RT): Back. Left Monday game; Week 6 pending.

Ed Oliver (DT): Knee. Missed Monday game; Week 6 pending.

Landon Jackson (EDGE): Knee. Inactive Monday; Week 6 pending.

Dee Alford (CB): Ankle. Inactive Monday; Week 6 pending.

C.J. Gardner-Johnson (S): Knee. Hurt Monday; Week 6 pending.

Buffalo Bills (continued)

Matchup impact: Moore and Palmer affect receiving depth; Brown affects Allen's protection on a short turnaround. Oliver and Jackson affect pressure and run defense. Alford and Gardner-Johnson affect a pass defense already vulnerable to yardage; several absences would support Las Vegas scoring potential.

Las Vegas Raiders

Jalen Nailor (WR): Concussion. Missed Week 5; protocol clearance needed.

Trey Zuhn III (OL): Knee. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Tonka Hemingway (DT): Concussion / neck. Left Week 5; clearance / Week 6 pending.

Patrick Johnson (EDGE): Neck / stinger. Left Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Jack Bech (WR): Forearm. IR absence; receiving depth reduced.

Dont'e Thornton Jr. (WR): Hamstring. Return-window candidate; not confirmed active.

Matchup impact: The receiver cluster changes Cousins' available routes, while Zuhn affects interior protection and blocking. Hemingway and Johnson affect the ability to pressure Allen and contain Buffalo's rushing attack. Thornton practicing fully under a return window still requires an activation decision.

Los Angeles Chargers

Rashawn Slater (LT): Ankle. IR; major tackle absence.

Joe Alt (OT): Neck. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Ladd McConkey (WR): Foot. No Week 5 offensive snaps; Week 6 pending.

Quentin Johnston (WR): Chest. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Tre' Harris (WR): Hamstring. Week-to-week; not assumed available.

Brenen Thompson (WR): Quadriceps. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Derwin James Jr. (S): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Donte Jackson (CB): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Trey Lance (QB): Groin. IR absence; backup depth affected, not Herbert status.

Matchup impact: This is a major protection-and-receiver cluster around Herbert: losing tackles plus several wideouts makes pressure harder to escape. James and Jackson affect coverage against Mahomes. Herbert remains the projected starter; Lance's absence should not be mistaken for a starting-QB injury.

Kansas City Chiefs

Rashee Rice (WR): Hamstring. Post-bye return watch; Week 6 pending.

Josh Simmons (LT): Back. Post-bye return watch; Week 6 pending.

Tyquan Thornton (WR): Ankle. IR; unavailable unless activated.

Matchup impact: Rice affects the passing attack's quick-game and after-catch options; Simmons affects Mahomes' blind-side protection. Thornton reduces receiver depth. The bye provided recovery time, but it should not be treated as proof that Rice or Simmons is ready.

Dallas Cowboys

CeeDee Lamb (WR): Quadriceps bruise. Hurt Thursday; Week 6 pending.

Tyler Guyton (OT): Back. Post-Thursday recovery watch; Week 6 pending.

DeMarvion Overshown (LB): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Joey Porter Jr. (CB): Illness. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Cobie Durant (CB): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Drew Shelton (OT): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Dallas Cowboys (continued)

Matchup impact: Lamb affects Prescott's primary receiving option, while Guyton and Shelton affect tackle depth. Porter and Durant are the key coverage combination versus Love. Overshown affects pursuit and underneath defense; his absence would add pressure to a run defense already allowing substantial yardage.

Green Bay Packers

Micah Parsons (EDGE): Knee / ACL. PUP; not expected to return for this matchup.

Javon Hargrave (DT): Achilles. New tear in Week 5; long-term absence.

Jayden Reed (WR): Neck. IR; major receiving absence.

Aaron Banks (G): Knee / toe. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Jacob Monk (C / G): Quadriceps. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Skyy Moore (WR): Ankle. Left Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Savion Williams (WR): Ankle. Return / activation watch; not confirmed active.

Matchup impact: Parsons and Hargrave affect both edge and interior pressure, so Green Bay cannot assume an intact front against Prescott. Banks and Monk affect interior protection and rushing continuity. Reed and Moore affect receiving depth; an activation window for Williams is not a confirmed replacement.

Washington Commanders

Laremy Tunsil (LT): Triceps. IR; major blind-side protection absence.

Stefon Diggs (WR): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Marcus Mariota (QB): Knee. Backup QB; missed Week 5, return pending.

Charles Omenihu (EDGE): Groin / ankle. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Percy Butler (S): Hamstring. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Nick Cross (S): Illness. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Trey Amos (CB): Ankle. Return / clearance watch; not confirmed active.

Matchup impact: Tunsil affects protection for Jayden Daniels; Diggs affects downfield receiving depth. Mariota is a backup issue, not evidence that Daniels is out. Omenihu and the defensive-back cluster affect pressure and coverage against Purdy, especially if Washington needs to defend extended possessions.

San Francisco 49ers

Deebo Samuel Sr. (WR): Right hamstring. Coach expects at least a couple of weeks missed.

Nick Bosa (EDGE): Calf / knee. Possible return; Week 6 pending.

Kyle Juszczyk (FB): Knee. Possible return after Week 5 absence; pending.

Christian Kirk (WR): Calf. IR; no confirmed activation.

Ricky Pearsall (WR): Knee. IR; unavailable unless activated.

Marques Sigle (S): Ankle. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

James Thompson Jr. (DT): Ankle. Missed Week 5; Week 6 pending.

Upton Stout (CB): Shoulder. Week 5 questionable listing; monitor new report.

Matchup impact: Samuel, Kirk and Pearsall make the receiving group substantially thinner around Purdy. Juszczyk affects lead blocking and formation flexibility. Bosa's return would improve pressure without extra blitzing; Sigle, Thompson and Stout affect the defense's depth against Daniels' mobility.

Why Betting With ATS Matters Early in the NBA and College Basketball Seasons

The first few weeks of basketball can offer valuable betting opportunities-but they also present some of the toughest handicapping challenges of the season.

New rosters, coaching changes, uncertain rotations and limited current-season statistics make it difficult to judge exactly how good a team is. A familiar name or last season’s record can influence the betting market long after a team’s personnel and style have changed.

That is why working with ATS can be especially valuable early in the NBA and college basketball seasons. The goal is to evaluate what a team can do now, determine how the matchup affects its chances, and decide whether the available line offers value.

Last Season’s Results Are Only a Starting Point

A team that won consistently last year may enter the new season with different strengths and weaknesses. In the NBA, a trade can change who handles the ball, how a team spaces the floor and whether it can defend the rim. Losing a dependable reserve can also matter when the starters leave the game.

College basketball brings even more turnover. Transfers, freshmen and coaching changes can reshape nearly an entire rotation. A recognizable program may have considerable talent but still need time to establish its defensive assignments and offensive timing.

ATS’ approach looks beyond the name on the jersey.

Personnel, experience, coaching and matchup fit help establish a more useful picture than reputation alone.

Early Scores Can Be Misleading

A comfortable opening-night win does not necessarily mean a team is ready to cover a large spread against stronger competition.

Was the opponent missing its best player?

Did the winner shoot unusually well from three-point range? Did turnovers create easy baskets that may be harder to find in the next game?

The same questions apply after a disappointing loss. A team can play reasonably well and lose because open shots did not fall. Another can win while showing defensive problems that a better opponent will exploit.

Rotations and Availability Matter Immediately

Early in the NBA season, minutes restrictions, returning injured players and changing bench roles can affect a team’s performance. Rest and travel become more meaningful when a coach is still determining which combinations work.

In college basketball, a talented freshman may be learning how to defend without fouling. A transfer may need time to adjust to a different offensive system. A team with several capable scorers may still struggle to create good shots together.

These details influence spreads, totals and the ability to finish close games. Following who is available-and how that player will actually be used-is an essential part of the early-season evaluation.

The Best Team Is Not Always the Best Bet

Picking a likely winner is only part of handicapping.

A strong favorite can win comfortably and still fail to cover. An overlooked underdog can lose the game while rewarding bettors who took the points.

The football message applies to basketball as well: look for where the line is wrong. That requires comparing the market’s expectations with the current roster, likely pace, offensive efficiency, defensive matchups and game conditions.

The decision must come back to the number being offered.

Discipline Helps Protect Your Season

Early basketball can tempt bettors to chase a loss, increase their stakes after one impressive win or wager on every televised game.

A selective approach gives the analysis time to develop. Consistent bet sizing also helps prevent one uncertain matchup from doing disproportionate damage to a bankroll.

Working with ATS offers a structured way to approach those decisions: research the game, identify the reasons for a wager, assess the price and maintain discipline.

Every selection carries uncertainty, so managing the exposure matters alongside making the pick.

A Full Portfolio is Crucial to Maximizing Your Earning Potential

Football can anchor a betting strategy, but adding other sports including hockey, UFC, and basketball gives you more opportunities to find value throughout the year. The advantage comes from having more games and markets to evaluate-and being selective about which ones deserve a wager.

More opportunities to find a favorable line. Some football weekends offer only a few attractive plays. Following other sports lets you look elsewhere instead of forcing a football bet simply because it’s Saturday or Sunday. The strongest opportunity on a particular day might be an NHL total, a basketball underdog, or a UFC matchup.

Different sports reward different types of analysis.

- Hockey: Goaltending, special teams, travel, rest, and lineup changes can affect sides, totals, and period bets.
- UFC: Fighting styles, wrestling defense, conditioning, reach, and preparation help determine how two fighters match up.
- Basketball: Pace, rotations, injuries, rest, and scheduling can create opportunities in sides and totals.
- Football: Quarterback play, line play, coaching, injuries, and situational matchups remain central.

Less dependence on one football weekend. Spreading carefully selected wagers across sports can reduce reliance on a single slate. But diversification does not automatically reduce risk: bets can share similar exposures, and placing more wagers can increase total losses.

A year-round approach encourages patience. You don’t have to make every football weekend carry the entire betting plan. Other sports provide additional opportunities when football offers limited value or its season ends.

You can win more by adding sports if the additional selections have a real edge and fit your bankroll. More bets alone won’t accomplish that. The goal is more quality opportunities, consistent money management, and the discipline to pass when the price isn’t right.

Your best betting opportunity may come from a sport you aren’t currently playing. Football can remain your foundation, but adding hockey, UFC, and basketball expands the range of opportunities you can evaluate.

For an ATS client, that matters for several reasons:

- Access to more ATS selections. A football-only client may miss an attractive hockey total, basketball underdog, or UFC matchup simply because it falls outside their package.
- Greater selectivity. When football offers limited value, other sports give you alternatives. You can pass on a marginal football game and wait for a stronger opportunity elsewhere.
